HUSBAND'S DEATH SOON FOLLOWED THAT OF WIFE

Surviving his wife by only two weeks, Asa C. McComiskey, passed away at his home at West Gloucester, at 7 o'clock last evening from the effects of pneumonia, the disease that claimed his helpmate. He was 67 years old.

The deceased, who was a member of the crew of the fishing schooner Morning Star, on returning to Boston from a trip, learned from the Boston police that several attempts had been made to reach him by radio on board vessel, telling him of his wife's death. He came here the day following her death and shortly afterwards was himself stricken with the dread disease, from which he failed to rally.

Mr. McComiskey was born in Pubnico, N. S., son of Israel and Rebecca (McGray) McComiskey. He came to Gloucester some 30 years ago, and had been fishing out of here ever since.

The deceased leaves five sons, James W., Lloyd, Ralph, Roger and Paul McComiskey of this city; two daughters, Mrs. Helen, wife of John Downes of Omaha, and Mrs. Elsie, wife of Ralph Nichols of Kezer Falls, Me.; and two brothers, Thomas and Luther in New York city.

CUTTER RUSHES AID TO FISHERMAN

Word was received at Coast Guard headquarters, Boston, yesterday, that the cutter Acushnet had gone to the Boston beam trawler Spray, in response to a wireless call, and had taken off one of the crew who had suffered a broken leg.

The transfer took place at 2.40 o'clock in the afternoon, at a point 200 miles east of Vineyard Haven, and the cutter immediately headed for that port to land the injured fisherman for hospital treatment. The despatch from the cutter did not give the name of the man hurt, or mention how his injury was received.

IN PORT AND NO ARRIV-

Two fares of fresh fish held over from yesterday's arrivals, neither of them having been reported, were taken out this morning, being the only receipts of fresh fish discharged since yesterday. The heavy easterly off shore kicked up a heavy sea and prevented all small boats and gill netters from fishing. None of the fleet is out today, preferring to hug port until the weather moderates.
